

Extendicare Announces Pending Departure of CEO

MARKHAM, ONTARIO, July 26, 2018 – Extendicare Inc. (“Extendicare” or the “Company”) (TSX: EXE) today announced that Tim Lukenda will be stepping down from his position as President and CEO, and Director of the Company, by December 31, 2018. The Extendicare Board of Directors has established a Search Committee of the Board and has engaged a leading search firm to conduct a search.

Alan Torrie, the Chairman of Extendicare, stated, “Tim has been an invaluable part of Extendicare during his ten-year tenure as President and CEO. Over the last three years, Tim has overseen the transformation of the Company into a Canadian focused seniors care and services provider. The Company today has a leading platform for providing continuum of care solutions, with an outstanding team of hard working and dedicated employees in place. On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Tim for his leadership, unwavering commitment to the Company and countless contributions.”

Tim Lukenda added, “I am grateful for having had the opportunity to lead a dedicated team committed to our mission of helping people live better. It has been a privilege to serve Extendicare, both as President and CEO and on the Board. I am very proud of the significant progress that the Company has made and confident that the Company is solidly positioned for continued growth and development.”
