

Correction From Source: Extencicare Completes Acquisition of Three Retirement Communities

MARKHAM, ONTARIO – December 2, 2015 – Extencicare Inc. (“Extencicare” or the “Company”) (TSX: EXE) today issued a Correction From Source with respect to the release issued on December 1, 2015. The figures in the sixth paragraph should appear as follows:

In addition, we have signed agreements with Brightwater to acquire two additional properties, with 158 suites in total, that are currently under construction in Moose Jaw and Yorkton, Saskatchewan, and anticipated to close in the first quarter of 2016. The aggregate purchase price for these two retirement communities is $40.5 million, including income support over 27 months of up to $2.25 million on each community, for a total of up to $4.5 million in income support. The purchase price represents a per-suite value of approximately $256,300 and a stabilized NOI yield estimated at 7.25%.

The corrected version of the December 1, 2015 press release follows:

MARKHAM, ONTARIO – December 1, 2015 – Extencicare Inc. (“Extencicare” or the “Company”) (TSX: EXE) today announced that it has closed on the previously announced acquisition of three private-pay retirement communities, with 284 suites in total, for approximately $78.7 million, inclusive of up to $1.0 million of income support, representing an average per-suite value of approximately $277,200, and a stabilized NOI yield estimated at 7.0%.

“We are pleased to complete these additional disciplined acquisitions which contribute to the diversification of our portfolio, both by geography and care type, and are immediately accretive to our AFFO per share,” stated Tim Lukenda, President and CEO of Extencicare. “These acquisitions are consistent with our acquisitions criteria and reaffirm our ability to execute our stated strategy of acquiring quality properties, along the full continuum of care, at competitive capitalization rates that are accretive to our key operating and financial metrics.”

Acquisition of Harvest Retirement Community

Extencicare has acquired Harvest Retirement Community (Harvest) for approximately $28.4 million from a partnership owned by Baybridge Seniors Housing and Nautical Lands Group. Harvest, located in Tillsonburg, ON, is a newly built 64-suite independent/enhanced living community that opened in September 2012, with current occupancy of 98%, and a recently completed addition of a further 36 suites with deposits on hand for 9 suites.

The vendor has provided Extencicare with income support over 24 months of up to $1.0 million. This amount will be held back from the $28.4 million purchase price on closing, and released back to Extencicare during the lease-up period based on an agreed-upon formula. The purchase price represents a per-suite value of $284,500 and a stabilized NOI yield estimated at 6.74%.

Acquisition of Stonebridge and Riverbend Retirement Communities

Extencicare has acquired a further two senior living homes in Saskatchewan from Brightwater Senior Living Group (Brightwater) for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $50.3 million. Stonebridge Crossing Retirement Community, located in Saskatoon, is a newly built 116-suite independent/enhanced living community that opened in December 2012, with current occupancy of 90%. Riverbend Crossing Retirement Community, located in Regina, is a newly built 68-suite senior care facility specializing in memory care that opened in August 2013, with current occupancy of 81%. The gross purchase price of these two homes represents a per-suite value of approximately $273,300 and a stabilized NOI yield estimated at 7.08%.

In addition, we have signed agreements with Brightwater to acquire two additional properties, with 158 suites in total, that are currently under construction in Moose Jaw and Yorkton, Saskatchewan, and anticipated to close in the first quarter of 2016. The aggregate purchase price for these two retirement communities is $40.5 million, including income support over 27 months of up to $2.25 million on each community, for a total of up to $4.5 million in income support. The purchase price represents a per-suite value of approximately $256,300 and a stabilized NOI yield estimated at 7.25%.

The purchase price for these acquisitions will initially be paid in cash with an intention to finance up to 65% once stabilized.
